ATLANTA (NOVEMBER 9, 2017) – THE MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART OF GEORGIA (MOCA GA) ANNOUNCES THE OPENING OF BANDIT NEW WORKS BY 2016/2017 WORKING ARTIST PROJECT FELLOW CRAIG DRENNEN FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1, 2017 AT 6:30 P AT MOCA GA.

The Museum of Contemporary Art of Georgia (MOCA GA) announces the opening reception for BANDIT, new works by 2016/2017 Working Artist Project Fellow Craig Drennen. The opening and exhibition will take place in the upper level galleries at MOCA GA. Exhibition dates are December 2 – January 27, 2018. The opening reception will be on Friday, December 1, 2017 from 6:30 - 8:30 pm.

CRAIG DRENNEN

Craig Drennen is an artist based in Atlanta, GA. He is represented by Samsøñ gallery in Boston. His recent exhibitions include "The Grafforists" at the Torrance Art Museum, in Torrance CA, and "New Mistress vs. Old Athenians" at Brooklyn Fireproof in Brooklyn, NY. His work has been reviewed in Artforum, Art in America, and The New York Times. He teaches at Georgia State University and served as dean of the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture. Since 2008 he has organized his studio practice around Shakespeare's Timon of Athens.

THE EXHIBITION

Since 2008 Drennen has produced artworks inspired by the list of characters from Shakespeare's worst play, Timon of Athens. BANDIT is Drennen's first solo museum exhibition and features new paintings, sculptures, and videos prompted by the character of Bandit. The Bandit works feature imagery borrowed from the traditions of Santa Claus, money, and the modernist grid. The exhibition will have a catalog available with an essay by Diana Nawi of the Perez Museum.

Thank you to Camilo Alvarez and Samsøñ gallery, Tim and Lauren Schragar, and 1970 Vodka for supporting this exhibition.

CRAIG DRENNEN SELECTED BY GUEST CURATOR RENE MORALES, FOR THE 2016/2017 WORKING ARTIST PROJECT FELLOWSHIP

René Morales received degrees in Art History from Swarthmore College and Brown University. He has been a curator at the Perez Art Museum Miami—previously known as Miami Art Museum—since 2005. In 2014, he organized the museum's current collection display Global Positioning Systems. Morales organized three well-received exhibitions for the opening of PAMM in 2013—Amelia Peláez: The Craft of Modernity, A Human Document: Selections from the Sackner Archive of Concrete and Visual Poetry, and Monika Sosnowska: Market. Recent exhibitions he has organized include a survey of the work of Miami-based painter Victoria Gitman, a discursive installation by Marjetica Potrc, a project that incorporates live parrots by the Rotterdam-based artist pair Bik Van der Pol, a site-specific sculptural work by Miami-based artist Nicolas Lobo, and a selection of Romare Bearden's 1964 Photostat works. Morales is currently working on newly commissioned projects with Sarah Oppenheimer and Susan Hiller, as well as a major survey of the work of Dara Friedman. Prior to working at PAMM, Morales worked at the Museum of Art, Rhode Island School of Design in Providence.

ABOUT MOCA GA'S WORKING ARTIST PROJECT

MOCA GA's Working Artist Project (WAP) was developed in support of mid-career or established artists in the greater metropolitan Atlanta area. Each year the program is funded by the Charles Lorigans Foundation with additional funding provided by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Antinori Foundation and an account provided for each Fellow by Binders Art Supplies and Frames. This legacy initiative provides an unparalleled level of support for individual artists, expands the Museum's mission, and promotes Atlanta as a city where artists can live, work, and thrive. MOCA GA supports artists by granting a major stipend to create new work; by presenting a solo exhibition of the new work; by producing an accompanying exhibition catalogue; and by providing paid studio apprentices over the course of one year.

ABOUT MOCA GA

The Museum of Contemporary Art of Georgia (MOCA GA) collects and archives significant, contemporary works by the artists of the state of Georgia. To place its artists in a broader context, the Museum's exhibitions include Georgia artists and artists from around the world. MOCA GA's programs promote the visual arts by creating a forum for active interchange between artists and the community. MOCA GA is located at 75 Bennett Street in the MOCA GA / TULA Art Complex. Admission is free to members, Veterans and US Military with ID, $8 for non-members and $5 for students and seniors (65+). For more information, call 404-367-8700, visit www.mocaga.org or email info@mocaga.org. MOCA GA is open to the public Tuesday – Saturday, 11 am - 5 pm, closed Sunday and Monday.

MAJOR FUNDING AND SUPPORT FOR MOCA GA IS PROVIDED IN PART BY

Major funding for this program is provided by the Fulton County Board of Commissioners. This project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts. Major support is provided by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs. This program is supported in part by Georgia Council for the Arts through the appropriations of the Georgia General Assembly. Georgia Council for the Arts also receives support from its partner agency - the National Endowment for the Arts.
